The second edition ... bears the date 1590; in the margins of the title-page from the Folger fragment of the first edition we can not say positively whether it was printed in 1590, or slightly earlier, in 1588 ... but in view of all the facts involved we seem warranted in concluding that the first edition ... probably appeared little if not in 1588."—Introd.

(Sharp, Granville, 1785-1813.
Extract of a letter to a gentleman in Maryland; wherein demonstrated the extreme wickedness of tolerating the slave trade, in order to favour the illegalities of our colonies, where the two first foundations of English law (two witnesses of God), are supplanted by opposite (and, of course, illegal) ordinances, which occasions a civil death of the English constitution, so that these two witnesses may be said to lie dead in all the West India islands! Originally printed in America.
First printed in London in 1793. The 4th ed. London, Printed by Phillips and Fardon. 1806.
